

Silent Witnesses: Synagogues Transformed, Rebuilt or Abandoned

On view through April 13, 2012

A unique installation of photographs, paintings, videos and mixed media works by twenty-three artists who researched the stories of synagogues across America, Europe, India and Israel as witnesses to the social and economic upheavals of our time.

A collaborative project of the Cultural Heritage Artists Project, the Jewish Art Salon, JWalks, and the Holocaust Memorial Center Zekelman Family Campus
